ANNOUNCEMENTS

Compliment Miss Miller.

The members of the Nineteenth Century club will compliment Miss Rosalie Miller, soprano, who will be heard at Goodwyn Institute Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Beethoven club, with an informal reception and tea Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the clubrooms.

Miss Miller is a Memphis girl and is remembered by her friends as most attractive and winsome. All members of the club are cordially invited to meet the honor guest.

Memphis Country Club.

The members of the Memphis Country club will be entertained with a dinner-dance Saturday evening. Dinner will be served at 5 o'clock and members are requested to limit their guest list to eight.

A delicious supper menu will be served to the members on Sunday evening.

Annual Election of Officers.

The annual election of officers of the Young Ladies' Institute will be held Wednesday evening in the new quarters in the Knights of Columbus building, on Jefferson avenue. Supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock, after which the election will be held. At the close of the business session a card game and dance will be featured.

Beethoven Concert.

The joint recital of Miss Rosalie Miller, soprano, and Miss Augusta Cottow, pianist, given Tuesday evening at Goodwyn Institute under the auspices of the Beethoven club, will usher in the season's musical affairs. To the Beethoven club is largely due the growing interest in Memphis of musical things worth while, and the public can only show its appreciation of the work done by these energetic women by its hearty co-operation.

A large number of reservations have been sold for the concert and the evening promises to be an event of social as well as artistic interest.

Foster Circle.

The Foster circle of the King's Daughters will hold a meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Walker Johnson, 1610 Peabody avenue. All members are urged to be present.

Christian Science Lecture.

A free lecture on Christian Science will be given by Judge Samuel W. Greene, U.S. of Louisville, Ky., Tuesday evening, Nov. 26, at 8 o'clock in the First Church of Christ, editor, Dunlap street and Monroe avenue.

Piano Teachers' Association.

The Piano Teachers' association will hold a meeting Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in the Woman's building. All members are urged to be present. All members wishing reservations made for the dinner given in compliance to Madame Sturkow-Ryder Saturday evening will kindly notify Miss Margaret Gauss, secretary, Main 4782 or Main 4686. Reservations must be made by Thursday.

Renaissance Music Circle.

Mrs. W. W. Deupree, Goodwin avenue, will serve as hostess to members of the Renaissance Music circle Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Mrs. R. L. Brown will serve as the chairman for the day. The participants on the program will be: Misses R. T. Fitzhugh, Ralph Jordan, James L. McRee, Ben Parker, F. Jones, soprano soloists; Mrs. C. A. Adams, pianist, contralto; Misses Agnes Adams, L. T. Fitzhugh, Edward Barrow, Lawson Wilhoite, Raymond Manogue, pianists.

The subjects for the program are "Southern Classics" and "Americans and American Indians."

Eastern Star Auxiliary.

The Eastern Star auxiliary will hold an important business meeting Wednesday afternoon at Masonic Temple. A full attendance is urged.

ENTERTAINMENTS

Weekly Club Luncheon.

The members of the Nineteenth Century club availed themselves of the privilege of outnumbering the limit set by the chairman of the luncheon committee for Monday afternoon, when the club entertained two distinguished guests, Mr. A. S. Caldwell and Lieut. Estes Armstrong, both recently returned from service overseas.

The decorations in the banquet hall were gold and blue and the tables held for centerpiece baskets of glass and yellow chrysanthemums and blue birds. The guests' table, over which Mrs. Arthur S. Buchanan, president of the club presided, had covers laid for ten. Mrs. Buchanan in her usual impressive manner presented the guests.

Mrs. Caldwell, who has but recently returned from Red Cross work overseas where she gave splendid service, told of the food conditions over there. Lieut. Armstrong dwelt upon the splendid work the women of the Red Cross were doing.

Seated at the guest table were: Mrs. Arthur S. Buchanan, Mrs. Caldwell, Lieut. and Mrs. Estes Armstrong, Mrs. Randolph Chears, Mrs. S. M. Nicky, Mrs. Roscoe Browne, Mrs. Benjamin F. Turner, S. A. Wilkinson and Miss Ruth Frazer Brown.

Among other congenial parties were: Mrs. R. P. Lake and guests, Mrs. William Murray, Sr., Mrs. Sallie Caldwell Rockwood, Mrs. A. P. J. Mooney and Miss Estelle Lake.

Mrs. Caldwell and guests, Mrs. Howard Carlie, Mrs. George Phillips, Mrs. S. E. Bell, Mrs. Flora Green, Miss Catherine Bell and Mr. Bolton Smith.

Miss Perry Patterson and guest, Mrs. T. F. Kelley.
